ALLURING LUXURY

COSTA PALMAS, MEXICO

Travelers in search of a serene Baja escape are invited to explore Costa Palmas, the East Cape's exclusive hidden gem. This 1500-acre residential and resort community integrates a serene way of life combined with options for thrilling activities to satisfy all levels of adventure seeking. The impeccable development features a swimmable beach, a yacht marina, and a small shopping village and the fabulous Four Seasons Resort Los Cabos at Costa Palmas. The area's highlight is the Robert Trent Jones II golf course, which winds along the shore and through lush gardens and colorful orchards.

The tropical landscape of the East Cape sets the scene for an idyllic getaway, and the area boasts some of the most unspoiled and secluded beaches in Baja California Sur, including Cabo Pulmo, and Playa La Ribera.

Compared to the more developed tourist areas of Los Cabos, the East Cape has maintained much of its natural charm. Located near the Sea of Cortez, known as “the world’s aquarium” for its rich marine life, the region is ideal for snorkeling, diving, swimming, and
